About Academic Library Association (ALA)

ALA is a registered body promotes the functioning of the academic and research libraries and librarians by organizing various programmes such as organizing National / International conferences, workshops, UGC-NET program for library science students and library professionals, encourages reading habits among the student community by conducting competitive exams and by signing Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) with college (s) for the development of academic and research activities.

Major Objectives of the ALA

- Promote academic and research library services
- Promote the library professionals by way of conducting orientation and workshops
- Promote collaboration with library professionals from various parts of the country

About The Seminar

Qualitative research is a type of scientific research. In general terms, scientific research consists of an investigation that:

- Seeks answers to a problem writing
- Systematically uses a predefined set of procedures to answer for the problem
- Collects Evidence
- Produces findings which were not have been done already in advance
- Produces findings which are applicable beyond the immediate boundaries of the study

Qualitative research shares these characteristics. Additionally, it seeks to understand a given research problem or topic from the perspectives of the local population it involves. Qualitative research is especially effective in obtaining culturally specific information about the values, opinions, behaviours, and social contexts in a particular population.

Seminar Objectives

- ❖ To enlighten the audience on the steps involved in conducting effective research writing.
- ❖ To illustrate the contents of a research article
- ❖ To involve in the process of publication such as contents of the research paper, selection of refereed journals for publication, referencing styles, how to cite references, publication ethics and plagiarism.
